

OLD COACH ROAD

Nelson, New Zealand

Old Coach Road runs along a ridge in the centre of the Moutere area between Nelson and Motueka in New Zealand's South Island. During the 1850's the first regular mail deliveries were carried by foot and then by horseback along the Old Coach Road

Herman and Agnes Seifried planted their first vineyard in this area in 1973 on the gently northward sloping clay loam soils.

With 14 Vinifera varieties, on two hectare of land, the South Island's modern commercial wine industry began.

The Old Coach Road range of wines are typically fresh, fruit driven styles, including Sauvignon Blanc, lightly oaked Chardonnay, Pinot Gris and Pinot Noir.
